

Dear parents,

I hope you are all keeping well. This is the last week of homework and as you will see I am just tying up a few loose ends. Thanks for all your hard work the last few months. I hope you all have a lovely summer and a well-earned rest. I am not going to lay out a daily record of work for this week.

Reading: Core Reader 3 – ‘Fish and Chips’ p. 22 – 24.

Sight words: were, the, have, said, here, you, are.

Double sounds: were, cash, fish, chips

*Granny – y in granny makes an ‘e’ sound.

Skills book: p. 23 + 24.

*Regarding core reader 4, we will do it in September. It will be a good foundation before starting on the senior infant readers.

Go With the Flow A (big book): Please complete the next two pages.

Busy at Maths: p. 29.

Please hold on to the children’s ‘Busy at Maths,’ ‘Go With the Flow,’ and ‘Skills book’ and we will finish them in September.

Míle buíochas,

Áine.
