Why Choose Our School

Faithful to the ethos and noble tradition of the parish national school, Aughacasla National School encourages:

- a deepening of Christian faith and moral values
- personal and emotional development in an atmosphere of appropriate freedom
- a deep respect for academic excellence, intellectual pursuits and independent thought
- self confidence, self-discipline and social skills to deal with the responsibilities of living as part of a community
- a spirit of equality and justice promoting an awareness of one's duties towards others, towards society and towards the natural world
- a lively interest in diverse artistic, creative, cultural and sporting activities
- continious in-service training and education towards staff development and support, thus preserving the traditional professional standards within the school
- a fostering of links between home, school and the wider community
